Families Moving Forward

His House Foundation (HHF) will soon be assuming responsibility for the Families Moving Forward program currently operated by Beacon Interfaith Housing Collaborative. Martha Brannon, Executive Director of HHF is looking forward to strengthening ties with Families Moving Forward and "expand on the work we are already doing in the community." Designed to assist families in need of emergency shelter, Families Moving Forward offers a temporary place to stay, meals, and case management support toward securing permanent stable housing.

LATINO V.O.I.C.E.S. of Minnesota

His House Foundation (HHF) is excited to have a "cultural hub for Spanish speakers" through our partnership with two local Latino organizations to support their outreach efforts and welcome their clients into our resource center. For example, Latino V.O.I.C.E.S. meets clients every Friday at our new location (115 East Second Street, downtown Chaska.)

"They told me His House would help."

For many people experiencing homelessness or the potential for being homeless, there are more questions than answers. The first big hurdle is where to start trying to access resources. His House offers a safe entry point with a Resource Center offering food and clothing with no questions asked. Multiple agencies and school counselors refer individuals and families to His House because of this easy access.

Almost every day someone walks through our door saying, "They told me His House would help me." In fact, over 4,000 people walk in to our Resource Center each year. From the free resources we offer on site to coordinated entry and facilitating connections with multiple agencies, His House opens doors for many people who would not even know what doors to look for.
